

Together for Justice:
Orchestrating a positive social response to Indigenous women in the Yukon

“Dignity” Conference, Hawkes Bay Aotearoa

Barb McInerney, Allan Wade, Kelly Manweiller, Cathy Richardson

April 10, 2015

Kim Barlow

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DYVGf8dmXgA>

The first time I saw Brian he had moose blood all over his hands
I'd never loved a red-neck hunter before.... So I thought I would give it a try.
I wrote him a Valentine that said if I had a dog I'd walk
it past your house
30 times a day
And if you were in your driveway I would say....
Humminah x 4, Humminah x 4

He shared an apartment with his younger sister

They slept side by side on the floor like little kids and I fell for him then.

We rolled around in the snow
beside Lucky Lake

I built him a table out of lumber to try to get him to like me better

But it didn't work..... Humminah x 4, Humminah x 4

I wrote him a letter that said "How can you be nearly asleep in my arms in the bathtub at night, the next day you act like you don't even know me.

You're sad and you're mean and you're lost and

I hope you marry a girl who smokes cigarettes and buys you stuffed animals for Christmas.....

Humminah x 4, Humminah x 4

Bringing greetings from Canada's Yukon

Ann Maje
Raider

Executive Director of the Liard Aboriginal Women's Society

Former Chief of the Liard First Nation

Mastermind of Together for Justice

Our Team

Cathy Richardson & Allan Wade - Facilitators
Centre for Response-Based Practice

Barb McInerny

E.D. Yukon Women's Transition House

Heavy Equipment
Operator
Pool Shark

Activist

Swimmer

Renee-Claude Carrier

Activist Counsellor
A-D. Kaushees Place Yukon Women's Transition House

Extreme Athlete

Home Builder

Montagnais Nation

Yukon Chief Superintendent Peter Clark

Keita the Evaluator

Voices and Experience of Women in the Community

CALLED ODD

11	12	13	14	15
26	27	28	29	30
41	42	43	44	45
56	57	58	59	60
71	72	73	74	75

TOTAL
BALLS

CALLED ODD

Dignity

Dear Abby Stewart

Being a part of the learning and relationship building that we engaged in and worked as the together for justice gatherings has been an incredibly meaningful experience for me.

I have seen the program we have made and we have embarked on a long journey, a right one to be together.

Each day months of going through emotional and physical struggles to support because they have experienced and we have been with our activities to be that we can return to our own and independent.

In solidarity,

K/ta

EXIT

B. Dwyer

Perspective Taking - The Invasion of Oka, July-Sept 1990

